CAMP MENOMINEE

MENOMINEE, MICHIGAN

July 1 to August 26, 1930

Time for Reveille

FOREWORD

Most parents realize today that the summer vacation time is the most critical period in the lives of their sons. Habits of study and of character are frequently lost in this period if the youngsters are left to idleness. Our aim is not only to conserve the qualities already attained by the boy, but to construct new strength in body, mind and character during the two months he is in our summer camp. In doing this the schedule is well balanced with varied recreation centering in a fixed purpose. But above any routine or program we place the association of wholesome, manly men, who are in constant association with the boys, directing them into the right sort of habits in physique and mind and character.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Boys are eligible for admission to Camp Menominee if they are between eight and sixteen years of age, of clean moral character, and of normal health. While we occasionally admit a boy under eight years of age or over sixteen, it is by special arrangement, and we feel that other camps may be more desirable for boys beyond these limits. The parent recommends the boy as of good moral character. Any boy with vicious habits will be sent home. While we preserve a democratic atmosphere, we object to any boy jeopardizing the moral standards of the group.

CHARACTER OF CAMP ACTIVITIES

A boy's nature in the pre-adolescent and early adolescent periods is eager for change and variety. To meet this need of boyhood, our camp schedule is builded to include an infinite variety of games and activities. From reveille in the morning to taps at night, there is a ceaseless round of fun and action that sends the boy to the table with a keen appetite, and to bed with a weary body. The association with a wholesome group of boys and an inspiring group of counselors tends to build into the youth a normal optimistic outlook upon life, helping him toward happiness and success in the years to come.

DIRECTION

Camp Menominee is under the same ownership and management as the Illinois Military School. Several of the instructors of the school serve as director and counselors of the camp. These men are selected because of their ability and experience with boys. The close fellowship existing between counselors and boys means a great deal in the formation of manly ideals.

LOCATION

Camp Menominee is located in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan on Menominee River and near Green Bay. The campus of the Michigan Military Academy, which is under the same direction as the Illinois Military School, will be the headquarters for the camp.

There is no more beautiful natural surroundings in America than are found in the vicinity of the camp. A cool healthful climate ensures a complete summer of joyous activity. The setting fortunately lends itself to a varied camping program of swimming, fishing, canoe trips, horseback trips, nature study and so forth.

EQUIPMENT

Every effort is made to preserve the natural surroundings of our camp site. While the facilities are provided to secure perfect sanitation and reasonable comfort, it is the aim to surround the boy with conditions that take him back to the primitive and simple modes of living. As the years pass by he will look back to the months spent in simple natural fellowship and his attitude toward life will be influenced by the things that are more fundamental.

RECREATION

The location and setting of the camp make possible a joyous summer for the boys in attendance. But the men who are in charge really determine the constructive value of the training and recreation. Our schedule looks to a well rounded development of each boy in physique and character.

Swimming, boating, ball games, tennis, golf, horseback riding and all sorts of athletics keep the boy's day so full that he has a voracious appetite and sleeps the restful sleep that builds mental and muscular and nervous strength.

In the evening the boys gather around the camp fire and with stories and games and amateur dramatics a spirit of good fellowship and unity is built up that helps throughout the years in the game of living one with another.

The activities of the camp will be worked out through four varied groups this summer. The pioneer and the water front groups will be stationed on Menominee bay. The canoe trip will be taken up Menominee river, while the horseback trip will lead out through the forest trails in Hiawatha land, the playground of America.

The Military Formations and Drill Build Physique and Character

LEARNING TO LIVE WITH OTHER PEOPLE

The boy who has learned to live with other boys has acquired one of the basic lessons of life. No man has ever become really successful until he has learned this lesson. The boy who associates in a camp with a fine crowd of lads from all over America, develops a broader viewpoint and understanding than he could acquire in practically any other way.

THE BOY, THE HORSE, THE TRAIL, AND THE MAN

The boy of today is just as anxious for horseback riding as the boy of a generation ago, but the automobile has crowded this experience out of his life. Camp Menominee offers a group of boys the opportunity to satisfy the age-old longing for companionship with a horse and a delightful camping experience of several days in some of the most beautiful and picturesque country of America. The experience will take the boy back to the days of his pioneering ancestors and build in him a strength that will be of value throughout the years to come. Each boy will ride out through the Michigan trails for a period of several days. Equipment for camping will be carried along and camp will be set up in some attractive spot each afternoon of the trip.

A WELL-TRIED EXPERIENCE

For several years the instructors of the Illinois Military School have taken horseback trips with their boys. No more happy memories remain with the boys and men than of the days spent on the trail and of the nights out in some wayside camp. Experience has taught the best methods of carrying out these hikes to bring richest returns.

CANOE TRIPS

A number of the boys will be taken on canoe trips up the Menominee River under the guidance of camp counselors. Camp supplies will be taken along and in leisurely pace a very considerable distance will be covered in the several days' trip. This trip will be open only to older boys capable of expert swimming and canoeing.

FOOD

The chef of the Illinois Military School has charge of the kitchen at Camp Menominee, and an abundance of wholesome food, well cooked, meets an enthusiastic reception from our boys. Fresh vegetables, meat, milk, eggs, etc., are easily accessible to our camp and the health of our boys is exceptional. A capable doctor is located close by in case of sickness.

VISITING DAYS

While we extend the courtesies of the camp to any of our patrons who may come to visit, we desire that as much as possible the visiting be confined to the regularly designated visitors' days. These come about the middle of the summer and a special invitation is sent to all our patrons.

Pair of blankets	Sweater
Four sheets	Slicker
Four pillow cases	Six pair sox
Four face towels	Toilet articles
Four bath towels	Shoes
Six suits of B. V. Ds. or athletic underwear	Bathing suit

Athletic equipment that the boy may possess.

LAUNDRY

The laundry is done near the camp. The cost of the laundry is included in the regular tuition rate. The clothing should be carefully marked with name tape so as to avoid confusion.

HOW TO REACH CAMP

Camp Menominee is about two miles from Menominee, Michigan. If visitors will come directly to the campus of the Michigan Military Academy escort will be given to the camp. Menominee may be reached on the Chicago and North Western, the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, and the Ann Arbor Line. Menominee is on U. S. Route 41 and Michigan State Route 35. A bus line runs directly from Chicago.

Camp counselors will escort a group of boys from Detroit and Chicago at the opening of camp. The leaving time for each group will be determined later and the parents notified.

Views Near Camp Menominee

Menominee is located on the shores of Green Bay and at the mouth of the Menominee River. Geographically it is 252 miles north of Chicago, and 167 miles north of Milwaukee. Situated directly across the river is Menominee's twin city, Marinette (Wisconsin). Both towns derived their names from Indian sources, Marinette being the name of an Indian queen and Menominee that of an Indian chief.

Good roads in any direction, and game fish abound in lakes and streams.

MEDALS

A number of gold medals are presented at the close of the camp to boys who have made the best record during the summer. It is needless to say that the boys prize these medals very highly, and work with a great deal of enthusiasm to secure them. During the camp period the boys are permitted to wear certain insignia to represent their accomplishments.

GENERAL EXPENSE

The charge for the eight weeks of camp is $200. In case of continued sickness a proportionate reduction is made. No reduction is made for withdrawal or dismissal without the written consent of the camp director.

TUTORING

Arrangements for tutoring may be made by parents for boys desirous of making up back work or shortening their school course. A number of the counselors are equipped to give the boy thorough training in the subjects which he may wish to take. The charge for tutoring is one dollar per hour. These arrangements should be made with the camp director prior to the opening of camp.

CLOTHING

It is well to have the boys outfitted with clothing at camp. Items that may be secured from the camp quartermaster, with their prices, follow:

Three khaki shirts	$4.50
Three pairs long khaki trousers	7.50
Two pairs white duck trousers	5.00
Two white shirts	3.00

THE IDEAL SCHOOL HOME

Each summer several boys who learn at our summer camp of the Illinois Military School and become acquainted with our fine type of cadet, decide to enter the winter school. These few pages are to give just a glimpse of our school equipment and some idea of our activities.

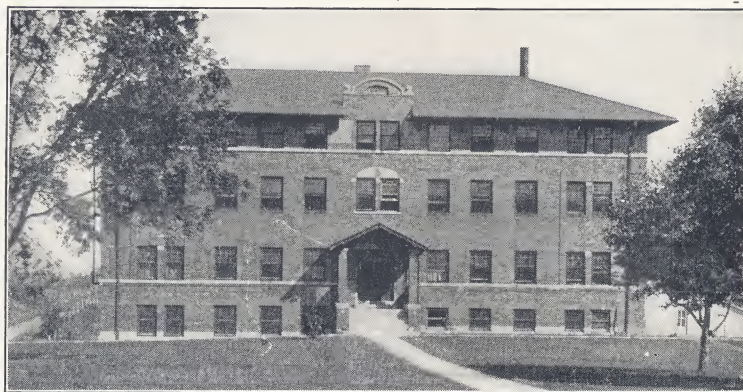

The school is divided into two groups, with the older boys of senior high school and junior college age at Abingdon, and boys doing junior high school and grade work at Aledo. A much more satisfactory program can be put on for each group with this separation according to age. With the schools and camp under the same management a year-around home can be provided for a boy whose home life is broken.

For further information relating to the Illinois Military School or for the regular catalog, write Colonel Clyde R. Terry, President, Illinois Military School, Aledo, Illinois.

Scenes on Menominee River on Which Canoe Trips Will Be Taken

THE MICHIGAN MILITARY ACADEMY

During the past year the Illinois Military School was compelled to turn many boys away because of lack of room. To take care of the fine lads desiring an experience in a military school of our type, we are opening, in September, the Michigan Military Academy at Menominee.

The excellent equipment formerly used by the Upper Peninsula Agricultural College will make very satisfactory quarters for this new school. The recitation rooms, the offices, the dormitories are all ready. An enlarged dining room and kitchen will be provided. The dairy barn, the cavalry stable, the poultry houses, the orchard, the pasture, the farm land will all be available to make for the cadets a comfortable and interesting place.

With the same general administration, the same ideal of individual instruction and a similar program of thoroughness and efficiency, we can naturally expect the Michigan Military Academy to succeed in somewhat the same way as the Illinois Military School, which has grown more rapidly than any military school in America during the last ten years.
